

Available services

This here is in essence a privately run server, which hosts certain services for my private use. On the other hand there are also some game servers running. You may get an overview via the server status page. Some also provide some bots, to not get completely bored while waiting for human players. There is also a teamspeak server running. If you want to contact the admin, feel free to mail to 7Saturn@gmx.de. See also the Games Database.
