

Armada 1 Negh'Var

The Negh'Var type ship of the game Star Trek Armada is the Klingons battleship. It is build by the Imperial Shipyard. It can be enhanced with an Ion Cannon. Among battleships it is the cheapest and most fast produced one. As such its supply drain is the highest (5.8/min). Its special weapon is especially dangerous for other battleships and stations, as it deals vast amounts of damage. This is a classic Klingon heads-on warship, that can be produced fast and a lot. Its only drawback are the rather low shields (675).
